A young man with brown, wavy hair and a concerned expression is sitting at a wooden desk in a classroom. He is wearing a navy blue and white horizontally striped t-shirt and a white digital wristwatch on his left wrist. He is looking towards the right side of the frame. In the background, there are blurred classroom desks and chairs. To the right, the side profile of another person's face is partially visible, looking towards the young man. The text "We have a Problem here" is overlaid in white in the top left corner.
